Scenic West Athletic Conference Teams

Head Coach

Todd Phillips

Head Coach Todd Phillips enters his fifth year as the SLCC Men's Basketball sideline general. Last year, Phillips led the Bruins to a 25-6 overall record while going 13-2 in conference, capturing a portion of the Scenic West Athletic Conference (SWAC) Championship. Salt Lake ended their season when they fell at the Region 18 Tournament.

In five full seasons leading the program, Phillips and his staff have moved 21 players on to compete and study at four-year schools. Last season, Coach Phillips placed four players on the All-Region 18 list. De'Sean Parsons won half of the Player of the Year honors and gained First-Team All-Region honors. Parsons moved on to play at Portland State. Blake Wilkinson received First-Team honors. Wilkinson is now playing at Brown University. Brandon Morley racked up Second-Team All-Region honors and Zerion Payton received Honorable mentions and is now playing for Westminster College. The Bruins also sent Larry Okhomina to the European Pro League. He is now playing in Greece.

Todd became head coach at SLCC after serving three years as an assistant coach on the Bruin staff under legendary Head Coach Norm Parrish who is now the Head Coach at Westminster. Phillips spent eight seasons earning his stripes as an assistant coach for the Griffins at Westminster College beginning in 2000. In his time at Westminster, he helped lead the Griffins to eight 20-plus win seasons, six conference titles and six NAIA National Tournament berths. As a coach, Todd has seen his career come full circle.

Before getting into the profession, Phillips played basketball in the SWAC at one of SLCC's in-state rivals, Snow College. After graduating from Snow College, Phillips continued his playing career at Lewis and Clark State College from 1997-1999. He received his bachelor's degree in Education and Kinesiology, and earned a master's degree in Education Administration from the University of Utah.

He and his wife, Bobbi, are both originally from Boise, Idaho and have one daughter, Kinzi.

Assistant Coach Silas Mills

Coach Silas Mills enters his fourth season as an assistant coach for SLCC Men's Basketball. He brings a wealth of collegiate and professional playing experience to the Bruin coaching staff.

Bringing vast collegiate and pro experience, Mills helped the Bruins to a 31-8 overall record while going 9-5 in conference, capturing the NJCAA National Championship. His primary focus is placed on player development. He will work mainly with the Bruin post players but his ability to relate to the college basketball life makes it easy for him to have an impact on all players on the SLCC roster.

Silas began his collegiate playing career at the University of Utah under legendary Head Coach Rick Majerus. Coming in as a 'prop 48' student-athlete, Mills transferred to Salt Lake Community College where he played for legendary SLCC Head Coach Norm Parrish.

Mills carried the Bruins to an NJCAA National Tournament appearance and a top five ranking in the final national poll for the first time in program history. In 1993-1994, Mills guided the Bruins to a Region 18 championship and he was named an All-Region 18 player along with NJCAA All-Tournament honors.

He moved on to Utah State University and played under Larry Eustachy from 1994-1996. Silas led the Aggies to a Big West Conference championship as USU became the last program to claim the conference title.

Coach Mills entered the professional ranks overseas, beginning his pro career at Kalev Tallin in Estonia in 1996. He then played pro ball in the USBL and IBA in 1997-1998. In 1998, Mills joined the Mobiline squad in the Phillipino Basketball Association (PBA) where he carried them to a league championship and was named league MVP.

He received his bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies at Utah State University.

Assistant Coach Brian Swindlehurst

Assistant Coach Brian Swindlehurst begins his second year with Salt Lake Community College after helping the team last year with their National Championship run. His role includes assisting with recruiting, opponent scouting, game planning, academics, and individual skill training. Prior to coming to Salt Lake Community College, Coach Swindlehurst helped the Westminster College men's basketball program run their summer program and basketball camps.

Before his time at Westminster, Brian served as the Director of Basketball Operations, varsity assistant coach, and freshman head coach for Santa Margarita Catholic High School in Southern California, a high-level private school competing in one of the top high school leagues in the country called the Trinity League. In 2014, he contributed to the varsity team winning a CIF championship in California Division 3AA.

As a player, Brian played at Timpview High School from 1999-2002. He was named Utah Valley's Most Valuable Player in 2002 and earned First Team All-State and Academic All-State awards.

In 2009, Brian graduated from Brigham Young University with a B.A. in Business Management emphasizing in Entrepreneurship.
