Scenic West Athletic Conference Teams

Head Coach Kyle Taylor

The program’s first external hire since Norm Parrish in 1991, Taylor said the prestige of the SLCC program is what appealed to him.

“Salt Lake Community College is one of the best NJCAA jobs in the country and I feel incredibly blessed to be the new head coach,” he said. “From the first time I spoke with Kevin Dustin, I knew he was the type of visionary leader I wanted to work with. The tradition of excellence that Coach Parrish and Coach Phillips have established is tremendous, and I’m looking forward to building off their success. Salt Lake City is a great city to live in and recruit to. The college is in great hands under the leadership of President (Deneece) Huftalin.”

Taylor most recently worked as the Associate Head Coach at Idaho State University. During his tenure with the Bengals, he worked as the program’s offensive coordinator and also helped with skill development. Taylor also worked as the program’s recruiting coordinator. Prior to that, Taylor worked for Utah State University under former coach Tim Duryea as his special assistant.

His previous head coaching experience came at Covenant College, where he was also the Director of Athletics for the NCAA Division-III institution in Georgia. While at Covenant, he led the team to their first NCAA tourney appearance and a school-record 18 wins after the 2016 season. In his role as Athletic Director, Taylor managed the budget, assisted with fundraising efforts for the institution, and successfully navigated a transition from NAIA to NCAA membership.

Taylor’s coaching experience started in California at Pepperdine University, working as a video coordinator. He also worked as an operations director at Cal State Northridge. The California native earned an undergraduate degree from UCLA and a graduate degree from Northwest Missouri State University.

After working all levels of the coaching profession, Taylor said his program will be focused on several goals that range from academic achievement to player development.

“As far as the program goes, we are going to pursue championships on the court and help our players grow off the court as men,” he said. “Insuring that student athletes receive their Associate degrees will be our top priority as coaches. We are going to continue to recruit high character and talented basketball players who will help us compete for Scenic West, Region 18 and National Championships. Player skill development will be a major component of our program, as well as assisting them in pursuing their dream of receiving a scholarship to a four-year school.”

Taylor will be moving to the Wasatch Front to coach the Bruins with his own team. His wife, Shannon, and their three children – Kade, 10; Quinn, 8; and Phillip, 6 – will be joining Taylor shortly from Pocatello, where they have lived while he worked with Idaho State.

Assistant Coach Brian Swindlehurst

Brian Swindlehurst begins his four year with Salt Lake Community College after helping the team to another NJCAA tourney appearance in 2018. He was also a pivotal part of the Bruins’ national championship run in 2016.. His role includes academic advising, assisting with recruiting, opponent scouting, game planning, and individual skill training. Prior to coming to Salt Lake Community College, Swindlehurst helped the Westminster College men’s basketball program run their summer program and basketball camps.

Before his time at Westminster, Brian served as the Director of Basketball Operations, varsity assistant coach, and freshman head coach for Santa Margarita Catholic High School in Southern California, a high-level private school competing in one of the top high school leagues in the country called the Trinity League. In 2014, he contributed to the varsity team winning a CIF championship in California Division 3AA. During his time at Santa Margarita, he also helped run a club basketball program in Southern California called Back to Basics (B2B) that included youth teams comprised of middle school-to-high school students. Prior to coaching in California, Swindlehurst spent six years as an assistant coach for the varsity boys basketball team at Timpview High School in Provo. He assisted the team that won the UHSAA 4A championship in 2010. In addition to his duties with the varsity team, he was the head coach for various other teams during his time there (most recently the JV team). Swindlehurst has also been an assistant coach with the Utah Basketball Club AAU program. As a player, Swindlehurst played at Timpview High School from 1999-2002. He was named Utah Valley’s Most Valuable Player in 2002 and earned First-Team All-State and Academic All-State awards. Swindlehurst graduated from Brigham Young University in 2009 with a B.A. in Business Management emphasizing in Entrepreneurship.

Assistant Coach: Rosbie Mutcherson Jr.

Rosbie Mutcherson Jr is in his first season as an assistant men’s basketball coach at Salt Lake Community College joining the department in July of 2019. He comes to Salt Lake City after 2 years at Northwest Florida State College. Mutcherson spent the 2016-17 season working with TNG Prep Academy and Believe Prep working directly under current G league assistant, Donnie Tyndall, and Wichita State assistant, Tyson Waterman. While in prep school, Mutcherson helped send numerous athletes to division 1, 2, 3 and NAIA programs across the country. Mutcherson helped with day to day operations specifically individual workouts, recruiting, practice planning, strength training, ACT/SAT prep, scheduling, video/scouting, and travel. Prior to his time prep level, Mutcherson spent one season as a graduate assistant/ JV head coach at Crown College in St. Bonifacius, Minnesota. He assisted the Storm in recruiting, practice planning, and day to day operations. Before Crown College, he spent the 2014-2015 season in the same position at Adams State University in Alamosa, Colorado under head coach, Louis Wilson. A native of Martinez, Georgia, Mutcherson played four years at Covenant College in Lookout Mountain, Georgia, earning his bachelor’s degree in Interdisciplinary studies in 2014 before attaining his master’s degree in Business Administration from Crown College in 2019.
